

Sarnelli House

After visiting Sarnelli House, and seeing the inspiring work that is done there, I wrote this poem, which will in no way express the love, care and commitment that occurs on a daily basis. A truly humbling and inspiring place, that helps place things in perspective!

JEHL

(Justice, Energy, Hope, Love)

Justice for the young,
Hope to live on,
Energy of the sun,
Love, to be the one!

Direction needs a guide,
Empathy comes from you,
Courage at my side,
Trust, the binding glue!

Gentle handed actions,
Community the key,
Joy, the one sanctioned,
Commitment builds me!
